

Kings of Judah Song

Josh Moore/Andy Baker

To the Tune of "When Johnny Comes Marching"

Intro:

Of twenty rulers Judah knew, just eight were good,
When Israel was divided, only Judah stood.
Assyria captured the North it's true,
It happened in seven-twenty-two,
Then Judah was alone...with its kings...let's all sing
Doom, doom, doom

Verse 1:

The first was Rehoboam, he was Sol'mon's son,
Abijah bad and Asa good, we're two to one
Jehosaphat he was so good, removed the idols made of wood,
Jehoram bad, Ahazaiah sad, cause his mom...killed his kids
(Queen Athaliah)

Verse 2:

Joash, Ahazaiah's kid did hide and thrived
Amaziah was an ok guy, but evil survived,
Uzziah then and Jotham too, they both were good as good can do,
And Ahaz was the worst of them all...he was bound to fall
Doom, doom, doom

Verse 3:

Hezekiah was the best, oh yes, he walked in the light
His kid, Manasseh was a fright, but then he did right,
Then Amon reigned for terrible two, the book of law did Josiah true,
And Je-ho-a-haz and Je-ho-ia-kim we're nearing the end,
Doom, doom, doom

Verse 4:

Jehoiachin, the next to last, was bad you see,
Zedekiah rebelled and hurried Judah's captivity,
From Nebuchadnezzar who's hard to spell, in 586 then Jerusalem fell
He carried them to Babylon, till the light it would dawn
Doom doom doom

Verse 5:

He kept them there till seven-ty years had come and gone,
They got to go home by Persia not by Babylon,
By Cyrus' hand it was allowed, before the Lord they fully bowed
And never served those idols again, they were through with that sin
Done DONE!
